Questions

1. What is the letter about?
2. Who is the sender of this letter?
3. Who is the recipient of this letter?
4. What is the relationship between the sender and the recipient?

B. LEARNING ACTIVITY 2: LET'S WRITE

1. Tujuan

Setelah mempelajari modul yang berjudul "Cordially Invited" terutama learning activity 2 ini, Anda akan mampu:

- a. menulis undangan resmi (formal Invitation) dalam bentuk surat terkait kegiatan sekolah/tempat kerja, dengan memperhatikan fungsi sosial, struktur teks, dan unsur kebahasaan, secara benar dan sesuai konteks
- b. menulis undangan resmi (formal Invitation) dalam bentuk kartu terkait kegiatan sekolah/tempat kerja, dengan memperhatikan fungsi sosial, struktur teks, dan unsur kebahasaan, secara benar dan sesuai konteks

2. Uraian Materi

Pada kegiatan belajar 2 ini Anda akan berlatih menulis teks undangan resmi baik dalam bentuk surat(email) maupun kartu. Agar Anda trampil menulis kedua bentuk undangan resmi dalam bahasa Inggris ayo berlatih menulis. Tetapi sebelumnya pelajari hal berikut ini.

a. Mail Address

The way to write an address in English is different from the way of many other languages. In English, the smallest unit – the person's name – comes first, and the largest unit, the country comes last. (If you are mailing a letter that will be delivered inside the same country, of course, then the largest unit will be the state or province.)

This is the standard order:

1. Mr./Ms./Mrs./Miss/Dr. + First-Name Last-Name
2. Title
3. Department
4. Company
5. Street Address
6. City,
7. State Postal Code Country

Example:

Ms. Winda Wulandari
Manager
HRD
Orhid Cop.ltd
Jl. Letjen A. Yani no 42
Indonesia 12730

Here are some other important rules:

1. For a woman, use 'Ms.' unless you know that she prefers another title. Use the one that she used if you have already received a letter from her.
2. If the title and department are short, they can be put on the same line:
Example: Manager, Sales Department
3. The country name is used only when you are sending from one country to another. Therefore, if you are in Japan and sending to someone else in Japan, you do not write "Japan" in the address. Only

American postal codes are called "ZIP" codes; use the word 'postal code' for other countries. For countries in Western Europe (except Great Britain) the postal code comes BEFORE the city name:

Example: D-451 Hamburg.

4. For the United States, always put the city, state, and ZIP code on the same line, and for Canada, the city, province, and postal code.
5. States and provinces are usually abbreviated in address. See the Appendix for a list of the 2-letter abbreviations.

b. Salutations

This is the greeting at the beginning of the letter, like "Dear Mary,"

If the person you are writing to is a friend, or if you have known the person for a long time and are on a 'first name basis', then you write:

Dear + First-Name + comma:

Example: Dear Bill,

If you do not know the person well, you use:

Mr./Ms./Mrs./Miss/Dr. (etc.) + the last name + colon:

Example: Dear Ms. Jones:

If you do not know the name of the person to whom you are writing, then use 'Sir/Madam' + colon. Example: Dear Sir/Madam:

A semi-colon (;) is never used in U.S.-style salutations. Use either a comma or a colon. British usage is different. They use no comma or colon after the name.

Let's practise
